

Tell your story!

Now you have come up with your invention,
write or draw a short story or comic strip to show.

Describe who your invention is for and their situation.

What is the problem they face?

What your invention is, how it's used, and how it helps.

