

Made by nature

Think about what things are made by nature: it could be insects making hives, mammals making dams and dens, fungi making huge networks that are alive! List or draw them here...

Can you imagine or research why they build these and how? For example, termites nest keeps them cool in the desert and are made of soil, saliva and dung! They can be up to 5 metres tall and like giant cities!

List or draw things made by nature