

Invent your own fictional character

World Book Day 2023

Your name

Your school & location

Character name

Tell us all about your character...

We all have our favourite characters from books. But imagine if you could invent your very own, special character to call your own - created by your brilliant and unique imagination. What would they be? What would they do? Where would they live? Anything goes...

Draw your character here Use black pen, add colours and labels